

Orbits of Algebraic Groups and Classification Problems

Vladimir L. Popov

Abstract. There are many examples where the problem of classifying algebraic objects of a certain type is reformulated as that of classifying orbits of some algebraic group action. The talk is aimed to discuss the decidability of the equivalence problem for two objects of the considered type in such cases.

Vladimir L. Popov
Steklov Mathematical Institute of the Russian Academy of Sciences
Moscow, Russia
e-mail: popovvl@mi-ras.ru